Some Quotes by Dr. Wierwille Raising Children in God's Word

"...When the churches met in the homes, the small groups made possible participation by everyone, as well as the giving of attention and help to the individual.

Inside the home or church group there must be leadership. The work of the Lord cannot be done haphazardly. I believe we could meet in homes, in groups of six to possibly twenty people or so, depending on the size of the room. Then we could take care of the believers in every particular area. No one would need to drive very far and yet the people would hear the wonderful Word of God. Our children could meet in a separate room with an adult teaching them the Word of God, or they could sit with the adults. Hearing the Word of God properly explained and the manifestations operated would be the greatest thing that could be done for them..."
