

THE MYSTERY

I want to shout it from the rooftop
I want the world to see
The mystery has been revealed
Now I have Christ in me

God's plan for all the ages
His brilliant strategy
Beforehand was kept secret
But now unveiled in you and me

Past Prophets didn't know it
Though they searched with all their might
Their efforts proved unfruitful
For God hid it from their sight

God's enemy didn't know it
He thought he'd won the game
But when the secret was revealed
No victory could he claim

In Christ Jesus we are saved
And our future is secure
For we are fellow heirs with him
Now and forever more

And one body are we all
God's promise in Christ is ours
It's we who show the mystery
To principalities and powers

So, let's speak with unbound boldness
Of the riches of Christ inside
And our eternal glory
For the mystery we cannot hide

—Terri Lee